Elections Newfoundland and Labrador would also like to advise that the following changes have taken effect in the administration of the Special (Mail In) Ballot process:

- (1) Candidates and party workers will no longer have access to the Special (Mail In) Ballot Kit. The kits will be mailed directly to the voter once his/her application has been approved.
- (2) Staff of Elections Newfoundland and Labrador will administer the vote in institutions such as hospitals and personal care/nursing homes.

These measures are designed to ensure the protection of voter rights and the secrecy of the ballot.
