PREFACE

This Report has been prepared by the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer for the purpose of presenting pertinent statistics on the May 3, 1993 General Election and to continue an historical legacy of Provincial elections in Newfoundland and Labrador.

This document is the culmination of a myriad of responsibilities that the Provincial Electoral Office performed in the General Election. To this end, the efforts of over 4,000 election officials on Polling Day and the guidance of 52 Returning Officers throughout the campaign period are acknowledged. Also, the staff at the Provincial Electoral Office are to be commended for their dedication throughout the duration of the General Election and to the expedient completion of post-election obligations.

Copies of this Report together with a compendium document titled ELECTORAL DISTRICT BOUNDARIES FOR THE PROVINCIAL GENERAL ELECTION, MAY 3, 1993 are available from the Queen's Printer, Confederation Building, East Block, St. John's, Newfoundland, A1B 4J6. Meanwhile, readers who may wish elaboration of the material covered in this Report should contact the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer.

D. Wayne Mitchell

CHIEF ELECTORAL OFFICER

OVERVIEW

On April 5, 1993 a Proclamation was issued for the dissolution of the Forty-First General Assembly of Newfoundland, which had commenced on March 29, 1989. A further Proclamation that day directed that writs be issued on April 6, 1993 for the General Election of Members to serve in the House of Assembly on Monday, May 3, 1993.

A total of 166 Candidates were nominated by the close of nominations on April 23, 1993 for all 52 Districts with 32 of these being women. The Liberal Party, the New Democratic Party and the Progressive Conservative Party each nominated Candidates in all Electoral Districts. There were 10 Non-Affiliated Candidates in the General Election.

A Provincial enumeration of voters had been initiated on March 25, 1993 but was not completed at the time the election was called on April 5, 1993. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council, therefore, ordered that the Official List of Electors for all Electoral Districts that was printed on November 21, 1988 be used in the May 3, 1993 General Election. The fact that the General Election was conducted based on a voters list almost five years old produced a situation where a total of 88,409 voters had to be sworn-in at the polls.

A total of 302,631 votes were cast in the General Election with 841 of these having been rejected. There were: 6,843 votes cast in 66 Advance Polls; 291,642 votes cast in 1,930 Regular Polls; and 4,146 votes cast in 1,822 Special Polls organized throughout the Province.

Judicial recounts were held for the Electoral District of Torngat Mountains and the Electoral District of Placentia. In both cases the results of the recounts upheld the official declaration of election that was made by the Returning Officer.

A Proclamation was issued on May 14, 1993 that the Forty-Second General Assembly convene on Thursday, May 20, 1993. The standings in the new Assembly following the May 3, 1993 General Election were: 35 Liberals; 16 Conservatives; and 1 New Democrat.

The incumbent Liberal Candidate who was defeated in Placentia made application in the Supreme Court of Newfoundland on June 15, 1993 to have the election of the Progressive Conservative Candidate set aside because of voting irregularities. All Parties to the application subsequently agreed that the matter would be determined by a ruling from the Court on a question of law as to whether the fact that fifty-five people voted contrary to Section 69(2) of the Election Act by not having taken an oath is sufficient in itself to vitiate the election without enquiry into the individual qualifications of those voters to vote.

The two Judges who heard the case in September 1993 answered this question in the affirmative and ruled on December 9, 1993 that the election must be set aside unless there is evidence that oaths or affirmations were actually sworn or subscribed. On January 14, 1994 the Court officially declared the election invalid and issued a certificate to the Speaker of the House of Assembly pursuant to Section 146 of the Act. The Speaker advised the Executive Council on January 17, 1994 of the judicial determination respecting the May 3, 1993 election return for Placentia and requested that a Writ for a new election in Placentia be issued.

On September 20, 1993 election expenses of Candidates in the May 3, 1993 General Election were filed with the Minister of Justice. The median expenditure of all Candidates was approximately $10,000 and total expenditures amounted to approximately $1,500,000. Meanwhile, the Electoral Office spent approximately $1,600,000 in conducting the May 3, 1993 General Election.

* The total number of eligible voters in the May 3, 1993 General Election is difficult to estimate as the 1988 Registered Voters List of 361,912 is not an accurate representation after four years. This is evidenced by the fact 88,409 voters were sworn in at the polls for the May 3, 1993 Provincial General Election.

 The election in Placentia was declared invalid by the Supreme Court on January 14, 1994. The Speaker notified the Executive Council on January 17, 1994 of the judicial decision and requested that a Writ for a new election in Placentia be issued.
