OVERVIEW

On January 29, 1996 a Proclamation was issued dissolving the Forty-Second General Assembly that commenced on May 20, 1993. Another Proclamation was then issued which set Thursday, February 22, 1996 for the General Election of Members to serve in the House of Assembly.

The suddenness of the General Election precluded administrative work from being completed for proclamation of the Elections Act, 1991 as amended on December 21, 1995. Instead, the Election Act, Revised Statutes of Newfoundland 1990 Chapter E-3, as amended governed the 1996 General Election.

An Act to Amend the House of Assembly Act and the Electoral Boundaries Act was passed on December 21, 1995 establishing 48 Electoral Districts in the Province upon dissolution of the Forty-Second General Assembly. Extraordinary effort was required over several weeks before the 1996 General Election call to redistribute 384,709 electors on the December 2, 1994 Official List of Electors from 52 Electoral Districts to 48 new Districts. Approximately 37,000 electors were sworn-in at the polls to vote in the General Election.

A total of 124 Candidates were nominated by February 12, 1996 to run in the General Election. The Liberal Party and the Progressive Conservative Party had Candidates nominated in all 48 Electoral Districts. The New Democratic Party had 20 Candidates nominated. There were 8 Candidates nominated without any Party affiliation.

There were 286,205 total votes cast in the General Election consisting of: 274,357 votes at 1,921 Regular Polls; 6,217 votes at 1,673 Special Polls and 5,631 votes at 77 Advance Polls. Out of the total votes cast 847 ballots were rejected leaving 285,358 valid votes counted. The distribution of the popular vote was: 55 % Liberal; 39% Progressive Conservative; 4% New Democrat; and 2% Other.

The official addition of the votes was completed in 43 Electoral Districts on February 24, 1996 but because of inclement weather the official addition was postponed in five other Electoral Districts for up to five days. Judicial Recounts were held for the Electoral District of Humber East March 5-6, 1996 and for the Electoral District of Windsor-Springdale March 19-21, 1996. The results of these Judicial Recounts did not change the declaration of Candidates elected from the official addition of the votes.

Notices of Candidates elected appeared in the Newfoundland Gazette between March 15, 1996 and March 29, 1996 following which those elected were sworn in as Members of the House of Assembly. The standings in the House of Assembly at the commencement of the Forty-Third General Assembly were: 37 Liberals; 9 Progressive Conservatives; 1 New Democrat and 1 Independent.

New election financing rules were in place for the 1996 General Election in line with Part III - Election Finances of the Elections Act, 1991 as modified by Government Policy on District Associations. These election finance provisions covered: registration of Candidates in the General Election; limits on political contributions and election expenses; tax credits for political contributions; public subsidization of Candidates expenditures; and filing of financial statements. The three registered Political Parties and 121 of the 124 registered Candidates submitted their financial statements by the August 22, 1996 filing deadline and the three remaining Candidates eventually filed. Financial statements are available for public inspection at the Office of Chief Electoral Officer.

The Office of Chief Electoral Officer spent approximately $1.8 million in supporting 48 Returning Officers to mobilize 4,400 election officials for the conduct of the Provincial General Election. It is estimated that subsidies for 100 Candidates' campaign expenditures and audit fees of all Candidates will amount to $875,000.

The mid-Winter timing of the 1996 General Election was risky but fortunately the weather was excellent throughout the entire Province on Advance Poll Day, February 18, 1996 and Regular Poll Day, February 22, 1996. Postponement of the official addition of the votes in five Electoral Districts from February 24, 1996 for up to five days reveals just how precarious winter elections can be. With increased probability of weather interruption in voting, the electoral outcome of a winter election is potentially affected because of votes being counted at different times in various areas of the Province.
