REPORT OF THE CHIEF ELECTORAL OFFICER ON ELECTION FINANCES FOR THE FEBRUARY 22, 1996 GENERAL ELECTION

INTRODUCTION

This Election Finance Report is a compendium document to the Report on the February 22, 1996 General Election that was submitted to the Speaker of the House of Assembly on October 28, 1996.

It was pointed out in the statistical Report that new election financing rules were in place for the first time in the 1996 General Election in line with Part III-Election Finances of the Elections Act, 1991 and Government Policy on District Associations. These election finance provisions covered: registration of Candidates in the General Election; filing of financial statements; limits on political contributions and election expenses; tax credits for political contributions; and public subsidization of Candidates' expenditures.

The deadline for the three registered Parties and 124 Candidates to file financial statements in respect of the February 22, 1996 General Election campaign period was August 22, 1996. The Office of Chief Electoral Officer completed a review of most of these filings within three months of the filing deadline once funding was eventually provided to cope with the large workload.

This Report contains a summary of the financial information submitted. The financial statements on which the summaries are based may be viewed at the Office of Chief Electoral Officer during normal business hours.

The original of this Report has been forwarded to the Queen's Printer for reproduction purposes to satisfy future public inquiries. Also, a copy has been supplied to the Legislative Librarian for further reference by Members of the House of Assembly.

FILING OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The three registered Political Parties and 121 of the 124 nominated Candidates in the General Election submitted financial statements by the August 22, 1996 filing deadline.

The Chief Financial Officers for the Bren Kelly Campaign and the Bev LeMoine Campaign filed late but each subsequently paid $50 for each day in default of filing. The deposit of $700 and $650 respectively in the Consolidated Revenue Fund was accepted in lieu of prosecution under Section 324 of the Act.

The late filing on September 25, 1996 by the Chief Financial Officer for the Roy Spencer Campaign has been referred to the Director of Public Prosecutions with the Department of Justice for action under Section 324.

The Auditor's Report for the Bud Hulan Campaign expresses a denial of opinion on the financial statements. This prompted the Office of Chief Electoral Officer to request on October 2, 1996 that all financial information in respect of this Campaign be supplied. A comprehensive analysis of the financial documentation was completed by the Director of Election Finance on November 21, 1996. The findings have been referred to the Director of Public Prosecutions with the Department of Justice for a determination on further action.

Appendix A to this Report presents the income and expense statements for the three registered Parties and all Candidates nominated for each Electoral District in the February 22, 1996 General Election.

POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Section 303 of the Elections Act, 1991 requires that contributor names and addresses, who donated $100 or more to registered Parties and Candidates in an election campaign, be submitted as part of election finance filings. The Office of Chief Electoral Officer compiles a consolidated contributor list in order to ascertain whether corporate and individual contribution limits have been met.

The contribution limits established under Section 287 for the 1996 General Election year amounted to $20,000 for corporations and trade unions and $5,000 for individuals. Five corporations and one individual were found to have exceeded these limits but once they were contacted the contributors agreed to recover the excess amounts where practical. This brought them back into compliance with the Act and no further action was taken.

Appendix B to this Report contains an alphabetical listing by contributor of all political contributions of $100 or more.

ELECTION EXPENSES

Section 316 of the Elections Act, 1991 places a limit on election expenses by Political Parties and Candidates in relation to the number of electors on the official list of electors. The initial threshold of $3.00 per elector in place when the Act was proclaimed is adjusted each year for changes in the Consumer Price Index for Canada. The adjusted limit for the 1996 General Election was $3.077 per elector.

The Electoral District of Bonavista South had the highest expense limit of $28,545. The lowest expense limit of $8,000 existed in the Electoral District of Torngat Mountains. All Political Parties complied with the aggregate expense limit for the Electoral Districts in which they nominated Candidates. Likewise, the expenditure of all Candidates except Dr. Bud Hulan, were within the limits calculated for each Electoral District.

Total expenditures by the three Parties in the General Election amounted to $1,230,000. Meanwhile, the expenditures of all Candidates in the General Election totalled $1,850,000.

PUBLIC SUBSIDIZATION OF CANDIDATES EXPENSES

Section 318 of the Elections Act, 1991 entitles Candidates who receive 15% of the popular vote in an Electoral District to reimbursement of election expenses from the Provincial Treasury equal to the lesser of 1/3 the expense limit for the District and actual expenses. In the February 22, 1996 General Election, 100 Candidates qualified for an election expense subsidy. The highest subsidy paid was $9,515 and the lowest subsidy paid was $2,667. Total subsidies paid to all Candidates plus auditor services fees of up to $500 amounted to approximately $875,000.

Campaign surpluses created either from contributions or payment of election expense subsidies are required under Section 318(5) of the Elections Act, 1991 to be held in trust with the Chief Electoral Officer for candidacy in the next election. If the Candidate does not run in the next election, the surplus funds held in trust are remitted to the Consolidated Revenue Fund. For the 1996 General Election, a policy was developed by Government for District Association financing which gave Candidates the option of transferring surplus campaign funds to the registered Political Party.

A total of 74 Candidates had surpluses remaining after the February 22, 1996 General Election. Ms. Sheila Kelly-Blackmore (PC), Ms. Yvonne Jones (Non-Affiliated) and Mr. Dennis Coates (Non-Affiliated) have funds in trust with the Chief Electoral Officer for candidacy in the next election. The remaining 71 Candidates transferred the following surplus funds to their respective Parties:

Liberal Party	$ 139,093
Progressive Conservative Party	$ 68,626
New Democratic Party	$ 19,286
	$ 227,005

ELECTION FINANCE COMPLIANCE

There were relatively few non-compliance issues arising from the General Election especially in view of the fact that a new election finance regime was in place for the first time. Examples of compliance difficulties that were ultimately rectified include:

1. Tax credit receipts that failed to provide contributor addresses and partnership breakdowns or were issued for goods and services contributions, were eventually corrected. Also, voided tax receipts that were not returned had to be retrieved.
2. Personal loans for individual campaigns were changed to borrowings from a bank, recognized lending institution or registered Party.
3. Three incidents of anonymous contributions over $100 that should have been immediately paid to the Chief Electoral Officer were subsequently recovered through a reduction in election subsidy payments.

The Office of Chief Electoral Officer has no legislative authority to disallow any expenditure including personal expenses. The Advisory Committee to the Chief Electoral Officer will be asked to consider whether guidelines should be developed for personal expenditures of Candidates in future elections.

ELECTION FINANCE ADMINISTRATION

The partial proclamation of Part III - Election Finances of the Elections Act, 1991 has necessitated transitional legislative amendments to treat all Candidates in elections as non-affiliated as well as policy development by Government to govern District Association financing activities in election periods. This legislative framework is difficult for Candidates' Chief Financial Officers to clearly follow.

Telephone: (709) 729-0712 Facsimile: (709) 729-0679

ADDENDUM

This is an addendum to the "Report of the Chief Electoral Officer on Election Finances for the February 22, 1996 General Election" that you recently received. An error was discovered in the compilation of the list of political contributions of $100 or more (Appendix B).

Political contributions to the Art Reid and Alec Snow Campaigns were all accidentally attributed to the Art Reid Campaign. The addendum provides a correct distribution of political contributions between the two campaigns.

The report to be made available to the public through the Queen's Printer will be appropriately corrected.

February 14, 1997
